

Joshua M. Kin

Civil and Criminal Appeals ♦ Creditors' Rights ♦
♦ Commercial and Business Litigation ♦
Insurance ♦ Bankruptcy

Joshua Kin is a trial and appellate attorney. Joshua was named a 2017 Super Lawyers, Rising Star and also received the prestigious 2015 Rising Litigator Award, awarded to two lawyers in the state of Ohio annually by the members of the Litigation Section of the Ohio State Bar Association.

Josh has a broad litigation practice. He has handled minor personal injury cases to brain injury cases; simple breach of contract cases to complex trade secret cases involving theft of computer source code; basic collection cases to involved representation of major secured creditors in Chapter 11 proceedings. He has also represented clients in a range of venues: administrative proceedings, arbitration, local municipal courts, state trial and appellate courts, and federal district and bankruptcy courts.

Joshua is a graduate of the University of Mississippi (cum laude, Phi Alpha Theta, History Honor Society) and the University of Dayton School of Law. In law school, he served as Comment Editor for the University of Dayton Law Review and served as a teaching assistant for the university's legal writing course after earning the highest grade in two persuasive legal writing courses.

More recently, Joshua honed his appellate advocacy skills by completing Bryan Garner's Advanced Legal Writing and Art of Persuasion courses. He also obtained a great deal of experience as an extern for the Second District Court of Appeals of Ohio.
